INSTITUTE

To the Class of 2024,

When making this yearbook, our team wanted to embody the spirit of our graduating class. There are many things that make the class of 2024 special, but if I had to pick one thing to celebrate, it would be our resilience. We've sacrificed our sleep, our sanity (I'm looking at you, architecture), and, for many of us, our credit scores. We've witnessed horrors in the news and had to shovel them down with our breakfasts to make our 9 AMs. We, the class of 2024, have shown incredible courage, stamina, and dedication. How? The question of how is one I encounter often. In conversations with my peers at Pratt, I have heard the burden of hows weighing down our optimism and blinding us to our limitless possibilities. How do I navigate being an artist and a human during such a confusing and chaotic time? How do I provide for myself as a creative in such an uncertain job market? How do I complete finals week with no Internet?

I am here to ask the graduating class a far more important question: Why? Why Pratt, why now? Why choose to be a creative? Our answers will look as unique and diverse as our vast and talented student population. If you take anything from this letter, I hope you choose to put your cynicism aside and dig deep into your whys. The times I have witnessed true excellence, vulnerability, courage, and creativity here at Pratt have been from someone deeply rooted in their why. I believe with every fiber of my being that we are all here at this time, at this place, for a significant reason. We are the next wave of thinkers, doers, and makers, and we are here in this moment to bring positive change and meaningful intention to the world around us. And we will do this by moving forward into our respective fields firmly planted in our whys. I implore you, graduating class of 2024: do not become blinded by the hows. Remember that life is meant to be enjoyed; we were made to create, and we all have a purpose. Remember it, say it out loud, scream it to the skies; ingrain the intention behind every action you take, so when our resilience is once again called to action, when the hows come knocking, you'll be able to answer,

Because you will know why.

Sincerely,
Alexandria Anne,
on behalf of the Prattonia Team

PRATT MEMORY?

My worst memory is pulling an all-nighter in studio and taking a bad 1-hour nap in the Steuben lounge before my studio's final presentation just for my plot to print with the wrong colors. Something died in me that day... and the 2DPC still owes me!
